*Variety:
The Spice
of Life*

Student Life

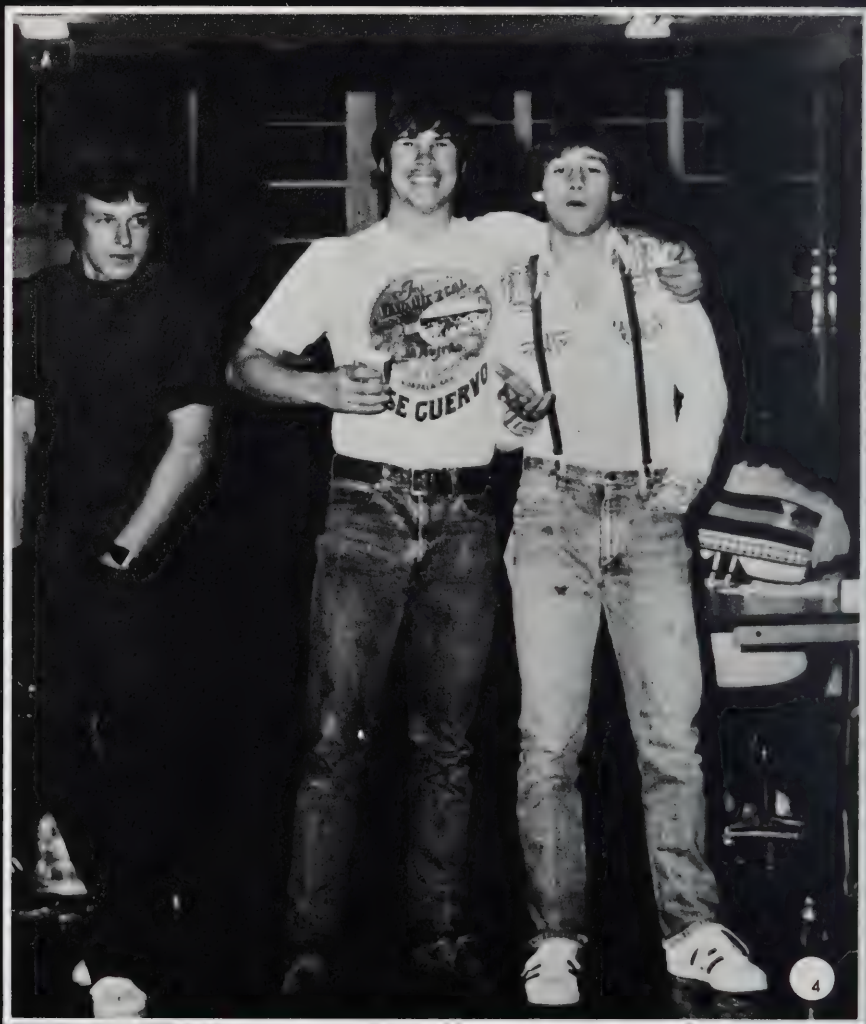

1978 was a year of mixed emotions for a student at Southern High School. We learned to make our own fun and conserve energy during the country's longest coal strike. We watched the Yankees win the World Series and Dallas Cowboys sweep the Super Bowl. We mourned over the loss of musical greats like Elvis Presley, Chicago, and Lynard Skynard.

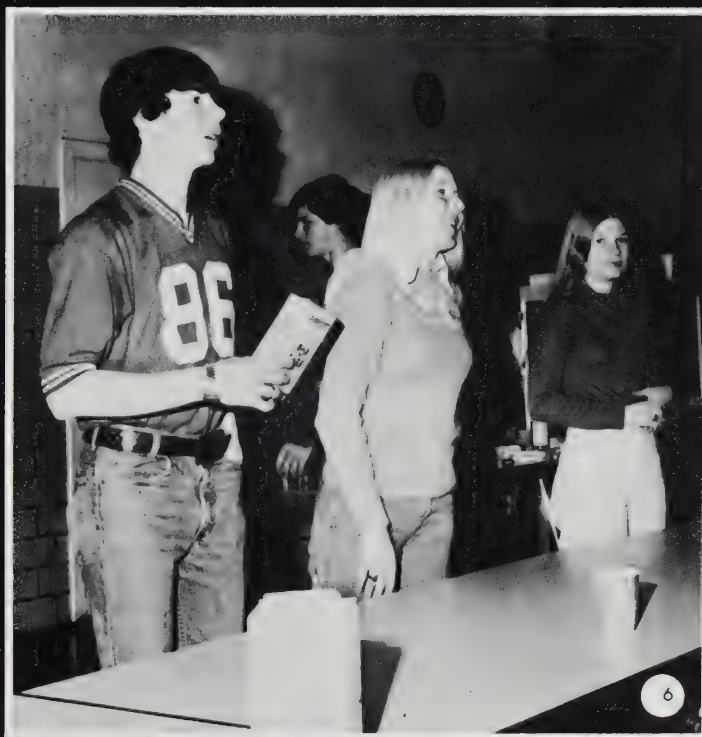

1978 was the year of Levis and Fleetwood Mac albums. It was a year of exciting athletic competition and boring snow days.

1978 was a lot of things to a lot of people, but for the students of Southern it was a year of memories, of good friends and unforgettable times. We will never forget the halls of Southern and the pleasures that were there for the taking.

"EDITOR"

1. Mickey Chapman sees something he likes. 2. Coach Bosley! That's not what they meant when they said they wanted more points. 3. "We're #1," says Cathie, Angie and Cathie. 4. Harold Harsh, Toes Etemyr, and Terri Riggs help raise money for the Jr. Class. 7. A typical day for some Southern students. 8. Jeff Hinebaugh and Greg Skiles are really enthused about their job.

Homecoming 1977 was a busy time at school. Many activities emerged during the week to help boost the homecoming spirit.

After many years of neglect, the Homecoming Parade was brought back to life. Each club and organization participated to help re-establish this dying tradition. It was a great success to start off this spirited week.

After the Parade, the annual Bonfire was held. Coach Tom Woods and Mr. Luther Parrack gave the team and fans arousing speeches.

The excitement mounted at the Pep Assembly and continued to the game. Halftime was the setting for the announcement of the King and Queen, Bob Wolfe and Sherry Umbel, and their court.

The festivities concluded on Saturday night at the Homecoming Dance with music by Crosstown Traffic. The highlight of the evening was the coronation of the Queen, Sherry Umbel, and her royal dance.

Hard Work and Proficiency

The Southern Highlander Marching Band have really worked hard in order to improve an already greatly talented group. They have traveled many places this year competing for many honors and usually winning. Such places as Philadelphia, Kingwood, Grafton, and Frostburg. They again conquered the elements and won first place in their division in the Autumn Glory Parade. A trophy was awarded to the band for being consistant in this effort for 10 years. The band has done an outstanding job this year and next year promises to be even better!

In any play, Broadway or Southern High School, on the average three things go wrong in each performance. And this year's cast of "The Murder Room" was no exception.

Perhaps the closest they came to disaster was during the presentation for the Junior Class. There was a lot of tension among the cast and crew and in the midst of everything, the gun was not placed in the buffet drawer between acts. So when Drew Bailey went to get it, it was not there. The gun played a major role in the last act. But due to a technical crew rehearsal, where this group let everything go wrong that could possibly go wrong, no great catastrophe resulted. Needless to say, the gun not being in its proper place was one of the failures rehearsed.

Drew alertly seized a bottle, broke it, and continued as though it was planned that way. It came off terrific and the audience never suspected a flaw.

It's the Wildest Thing I've Ever Done on Southern's Stage

Another major problem the Juniors encountered along the way was the coal miner's strike. The school was available only until 6:00 pm each night and not at all on weekends for nearly three weeks. This situation forced these actors to really try to get along. But this lack of time to practice severely cut the chances of a good performance.

At one point, production was almost impossible. This would have hurt the chances of the Junior Class even putting on the Prom — it came down to a "No Play — No Prom" situation. But the strike was settled and everything worked out.

Miss Jane Avery, the cast, and crew's professionalism showed through what is said to be Southern's finest play.

The Murder Room

The students of Southern High School would like to thank the graduating class of '79 for their presentation of the hysterically funny, mysterious farce "The Murder Room," as it is said to be the finest play ever seen on a Southern stage.

The play was under the direction of Miss Jane Avery and student directors Lorraine Roberts and Mark Raynovich.

The play opens when a very suspicious Drew Bailey is busy questioning his newlywed wife Lyz Grant, who is secretly seeing a lover who lives in a "second floor flat on Sudbury Lane." Drew becomes too inquisitive and is murdered by Lyz, who then hides him in a secret room downstairs. That same night, Lyz's cat turns up missing.

As the play continues, the day after her father's death, Drew's daughter, Cathy Graham and her husband-to-be Paul Ammann, return home. Next, Sam Ingram steps in to investigate in what Lyz reported as her husband's "disappearance." Later we learn that the gun which Lyz used to shoot Drew was actually filled with blanks, and so Drew was not murdered and the secret room, referred to jokingly by Cathy Graham as the "Murder Room," was not locked and Drew was able to escape.

Drew returns to the play in another act, but it seems when he was thrown into the "Murder Room," he hit his head, and as a result lost his memory. Because Drew loses his memory, he mistakes his true identity for that of a town policeman, and comes back to return Lyz's cat which was found dead.

Now, with the help of Cathy Graham and Paul Ammann, Drew Bailey comes to realize who he really is and the three together solve the mystery of who Lyz's lover actually is, and they find it is Sam Ingram, the inspector, trying to solve Drew's murder.

Lyz, still attempting to kill her husband, finally succeeds, and the play concludes when Drew is actually murdered.

"The Murder Room" was a great success, and a tremendous credit to the Junior Class.

1. Some crew members after a long day's work. 2. Kayla Savage makes Sam Ingram "Mr. Cover Girl!" 3. Lisa Thayer indulges in artificial enhancements. 4. Cathy Graham holds on tight to Drew Bailey. 5. Paul Ammann seems to be in pain. 6. Lisa Thayer gives Sam Ingram "her side of the story." 7. Drew Bailey seeks revenge with Lyz Grant.

Mousetrap by Sr. Class

The Class of 1978 united their acting talents once again and presented Mousetrap by Agatha Christie as the annual Senior Class play.

Instead of using the Southern stage, the seniors, under the direction of Dean Robert Trentham, used the stage in the auditorium of Garrett Community College.

To receive cooperation, Dean Trentham used threats of inserting a 2 X 4 and rotating it counterclockwise until there were splinters.

Chaos was the result of line runs. Dean Trentham would say a line from any part of the play and everyone who was in the scene had to run on stage and continue the dialogue from that line.

A chair fell apart during one rehearsal. Bill Herring fell off the stage backwards once or twice. Diane Frazee yelled, "Mrs. Ralston" instead of "Mrs. Barlow." Jimmy Shaffer tripped over the magazine basket. Perry Clark lost and forgot his gun several times.

Paul Naylor and Ginger Bailey discuss the murder. 9. Jimmy Shaffer shows his identification to Diane Frazee and Paul Naylor. 10. Jimmy Shaffer is caught relaxing.

1. Ginger Bailey gives Bill Herring the details of the murder he is reading about. 2. Perry Clark seeks revenge from Diane Frazee. 3. Diane Frazee admires her lovely gift from Paul Naylor. 4. Dean Trentham gives Paul Naylor a make-up job. 5. Bill Herring puts a surprise attack on Jenilee Stemple. 6. Diane Frazee has another confrontation with Jenilee Stemple. 7. Bill Herring and Jerry Hanline listen patiently to Perry Clark as he describes his plan. 8. Perry Clark tries to find out the real truth about the mysterious Ginger Bailey. 9. Debbie Herndon, Student Director, not working again. 10. Bill Herring tells of his tragic life. 11. Bill Herring defends his innocence to Paul Naylor.

Tradition Broken: Sr. Class Play Held at GCC

Jerry Hanline amused everyone with his dance steps. Ginger Bailey had a cigarette but no ash tray. Jenilee Stemple forgot stationery and a pen and during the murder scene she fainted — for real.

The set crew did their share of acting too — Joe Sisler pretended to be Fred Astaire.

Working on the play was certainly not all work and no fun. Everyone played hide-n-seek with Dean Trentham's kids; Jim Clark even played "cowboys and Indians" with them. One night after practice, the cast got together and went to Keyser.

Nothing can compare to working on a play in bringing a great many people together and making one big family out of them.

It takes a lot of cooperation and hard work to make a play successful and Mousetrap was indeed a success.

SPORTS

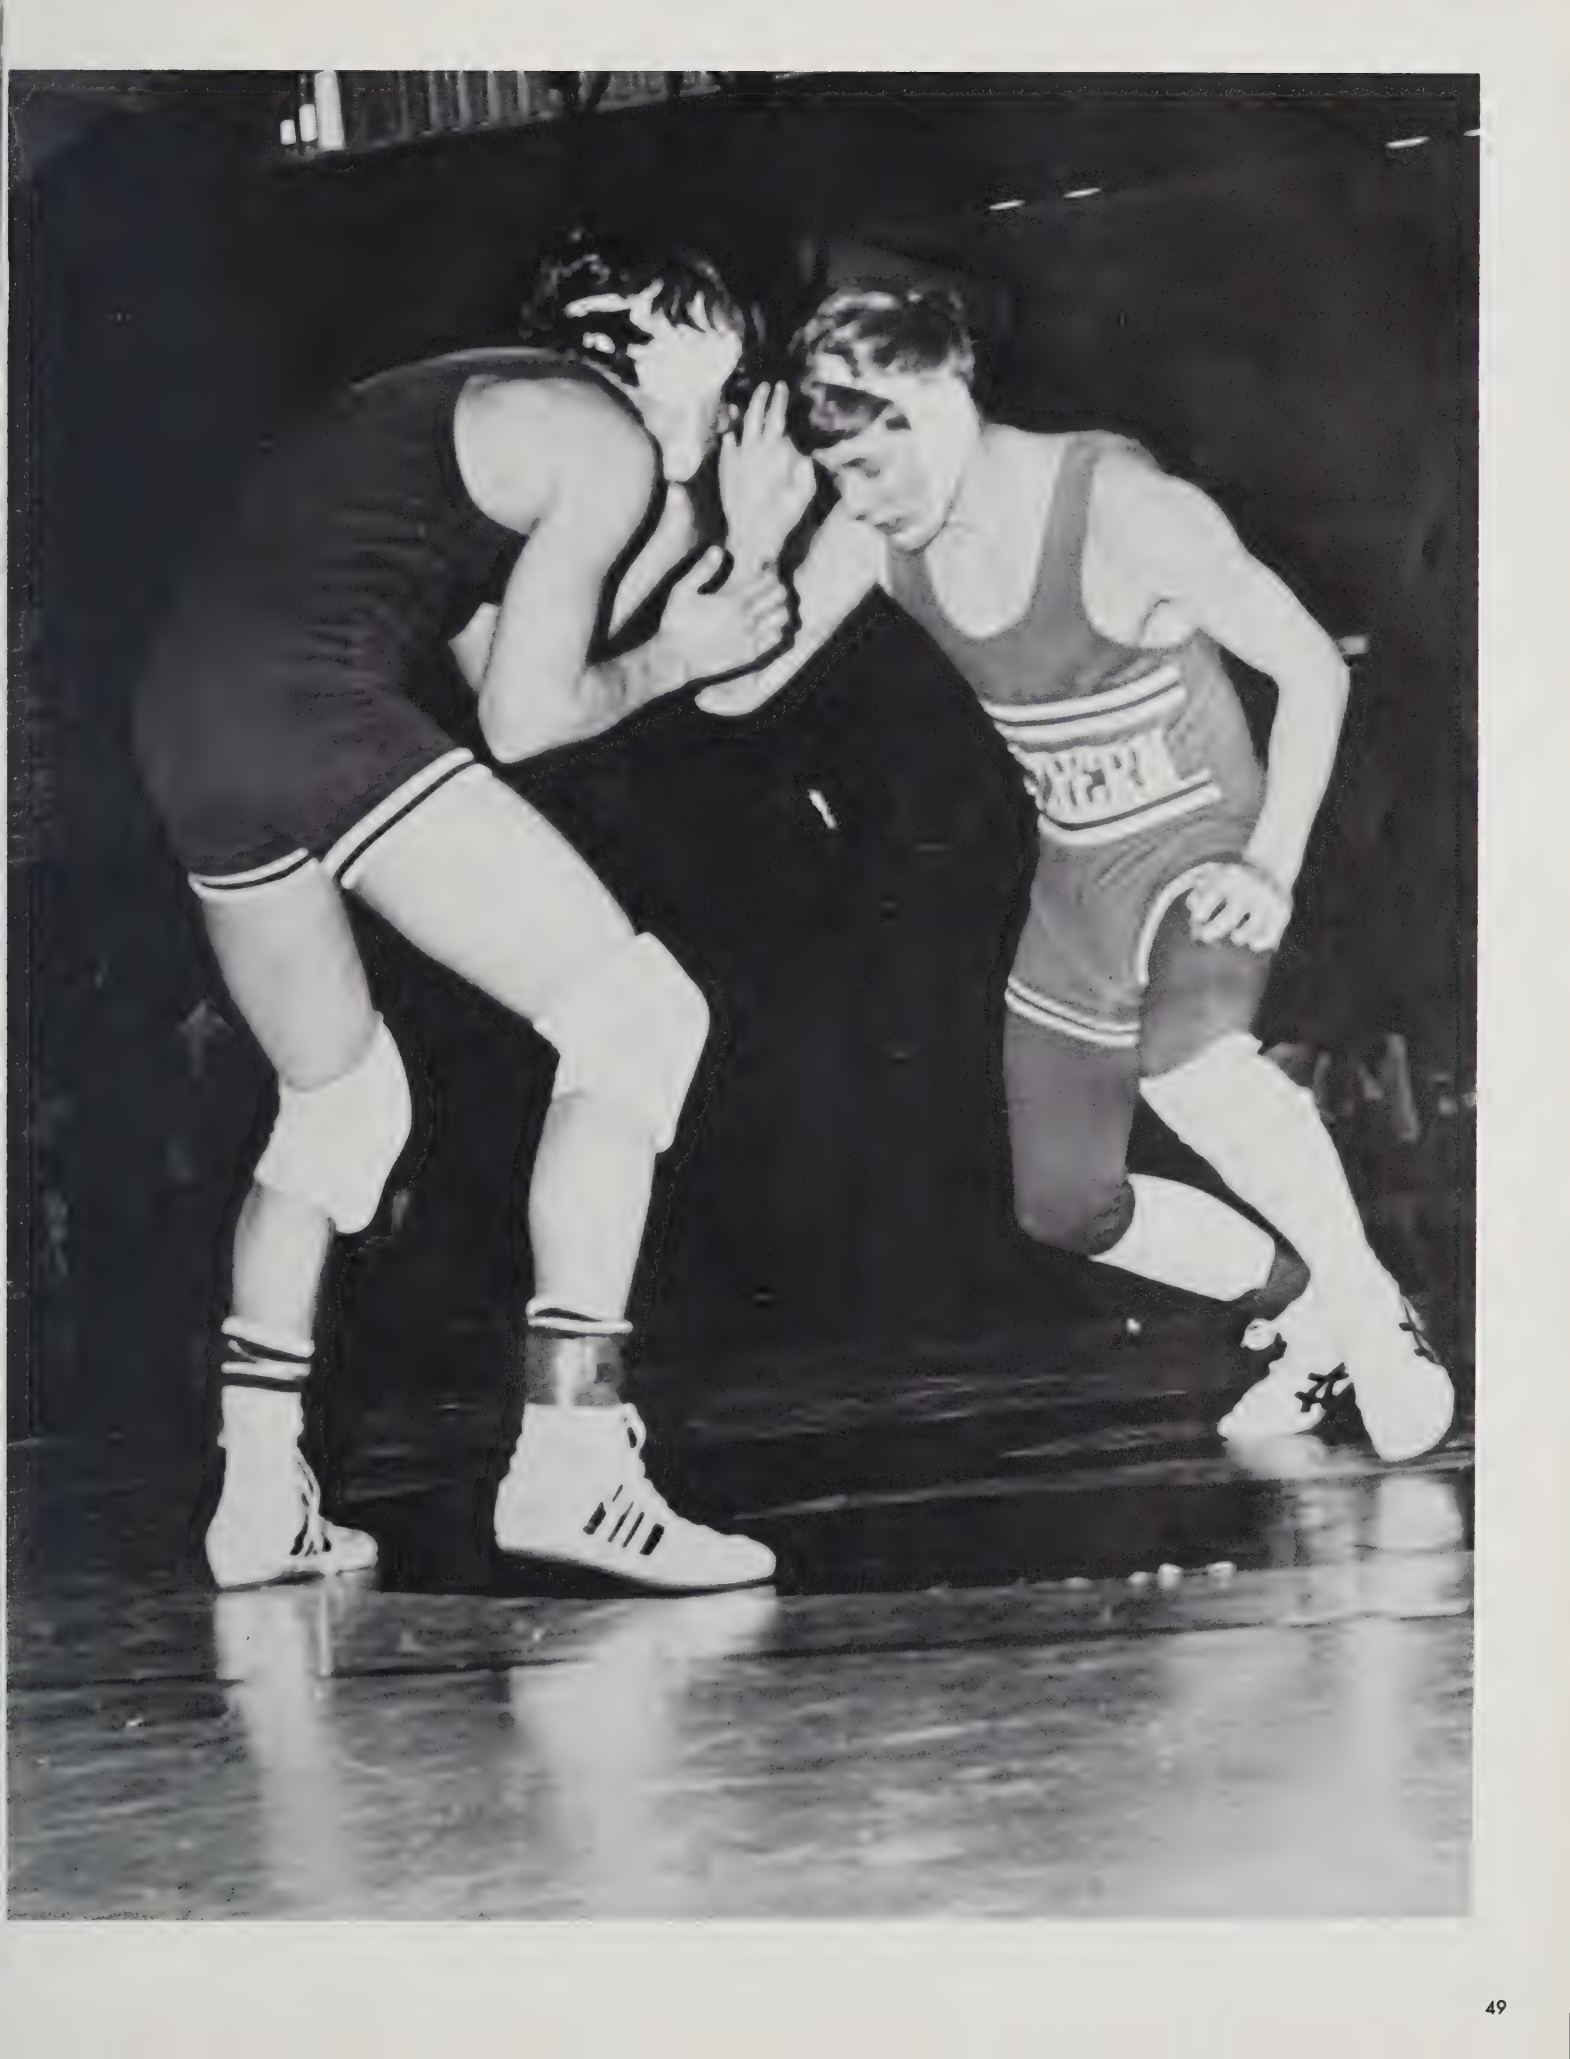

The Athletes of Southern High School are bound down with great efforts. Some resulting with success, others not so fortunate.

The Football team had much determination but the season ended too soon. The wrestlers finished with a great year, 8-1-1. They put in a fantastic effort. Some members proceeded on to regionals. Basketball was exciting leading up to districts. But, they were not victorious as was their goal. The Golfers had a successful season only losing three matches. The baseball team struck out on their goal.

While our boy athletes are improving, our girls are striving for better results. The Girls' Basketball team worked hard for their season but were not fortunate enough to get the spark that they needed. The Volleyball team hit their way to the Class B Championship ending up with second place.

The younger athletes are showing much improvement and Ram pride, looking forward to their coming years at S.H.S. As we say, We're Victory Bound, With Determination and Pride.

RAMS

This season was one of both great pleasure and intervals of disappointment. Of course, the football squad and I were disappointed with our six losses, but we felt great pleasure in our game to game improvement.

I have nothing but the upmost respect for the twelve seniors whose leadership kept our spirits high and our caliber of play at a premium.

I hope the fellowship, love, and respect we learned to feel for one another during the 1977 football campaign will always be remembered as being the basis for the type of football program we are striving to attain.

The 1977 Southern Varsity Football Squad will always be remembered as one of the best squads ever! The Rams, under the expertise of Coach Tom Woods, showed outstanding spirit and ability on the field and off.

Some of the team will never forget the endless hours of practice that resulted in the Rams having a four win, six loss record for the season. Others would prefer to forget the jack-o-lanterns, the "white" deer, the muddle-huddle-offense, the bonfires, and everything else that made the season so exceptional.

Several team members were recognized for their outstanding performance. They included: Jim Clark, Times-News '77 Area All Star Grid Team, All-Highland Football Conference; Fred Gregg, All-Potomac Valley Conference; Steve Liller, All-Potomac Valley Conference, All-Highland Football Conference, Times-News '77 Area All Star, Grid Team, and Prep All-American.

Even though the season was one of the coldest ever, the fans were always loyal and the bleachers overflowed at every home game and at several away games.

JV Has Excellent Season

The Southern Junior Varsity football team concluded a victorious season with an impressive six and three won-lost record.

The team's hard hitting defense recorded three shut-outs and allowed only one touchdown in each of the other three wins. The Ram offense was very steady, scoring an average in the teens each game with a balanced running and passing attack against the opponent.

The shut-out over Central Preston, after an overtime loss earlier in the season, is an excellent example of the versatility and winning form of the outstanding J.V. team. With such comebacks throughout the season, large gaps were torn in the defenses of many schools.

The team, coached by Mr. Dave Bosley, was one of the finest J.V. teams yet to emerge from Southern. Much of their success can be attributed to hard work, practices with and against the Varsity, and great coaching. Congratulations to the 1977 Junior Varsity Rams for a great season!

The 1978 Varsity Basketball Team Was an excellent defensive team. The highlights of the year were winning the snowball classic for the first time and pulling everything together and walking off with a terrific win against Williamsport in the play-offs.

Individual accomplishments were made by Steve Liller and Joe DiSimone. Steve had the most points in one season, the most points in a career, the most points in one game and has been over 30 points in 10 games. Joe had the most charges in one season and the most charges in one game.

Although the team record of 13-11 does not appear to be that impressive, the team was actually 15 points away from being 18-6 because they lost 5 games by 5 points or less and two in overtime. With just a little luck it could have been a great year instead of just average.

This year's team was a very rewarding experience. We had a very good season although our record did not show it. I think next year's team will be a good contender for the state playoffs. I will always remember my athletic endeavors and all the fine athletes I have participated with at Southern.

I think with the great fan support and school spirit Southern possesses that Athletics at SHS is definitely on the up-swing to being a super high school for athletics. I will miss playing at Southern a lot and I would like to thank all the students and fans of SHS for making my high school basketball career a great one.

and the best home win percentage ever. The team was coached by Tom Bosley and Bill Ewing, both in their first year of coaching at Southern.

The biggest win of the season came when Allegany, the area's top J.V. team, was upset by Southern with a score of 57-54. Dave Hershman tallied 33 points to lead the Rams to that victory.

Dave Hershman, the season's Most Valuable Player, led the team with 298 points for the year.

Doug Devlin led the team in steals and is probably the premiere defensive player on the J.V. team.

Delbert Liller led the team in assists. He was also another outstanding defensive player.

Jeff Ryscavage was the only ninth grader on the team this year. Many area coaches praised Jeff as being the best freshman in the area. Andrew Fike and Scott Winters rounded out the starting line-up. Both are steady defensive players.

Bart Sweitzer, Rick Edwards, Ray Bennett, and Jeff White were the reserves. All four saw a large amount of playing time. Tim Skiles, John Culp, and Gary Heginbotham were the managers.

Coach Ken McLaughlin Leads 9th Graders to 8-5 Record

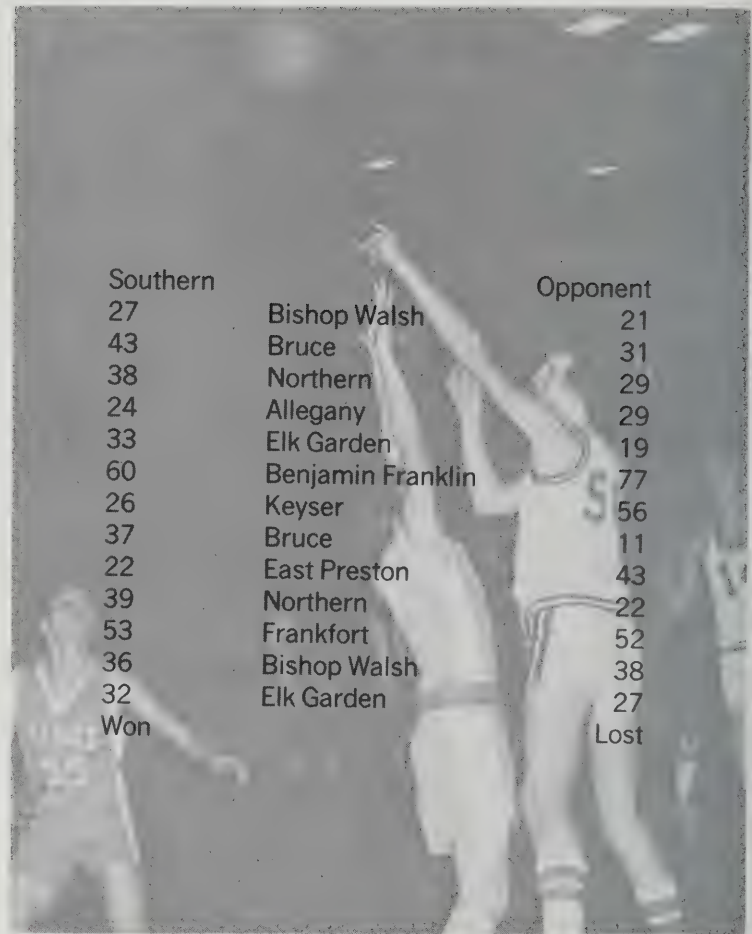

This was one of the best Ninth Grade Basketball teams this school has had in the past few years. Once again Coach Ken McLaughlin proved that he could take a group of players and make them work more than efficiently in a game situation.

Coach McLaughlin said, "These kids started out behind the other teams we played because they were not exposed to interscholastic sports at the Middle School. But towards the end of the year, they started to get the team defense concept. I hope they play a lot over the summer because we are expecting good things from this group!"

Matt Pritts said, "Despite the loss of key players during the year, we did our best to overcome our handicaps and meet our goals."

And finally, Mark Powles said, "I thought we had a good season despite getting a lot of games cancelled due to the energy crisis and not have a P.V.C. Tournament and other games."

The Ninth Grade team showed this year that they had the ability to play good basketball. With concentration and continued good coaching, we will undoubtedly have a good team for years to come.

Varsity Wrestlers

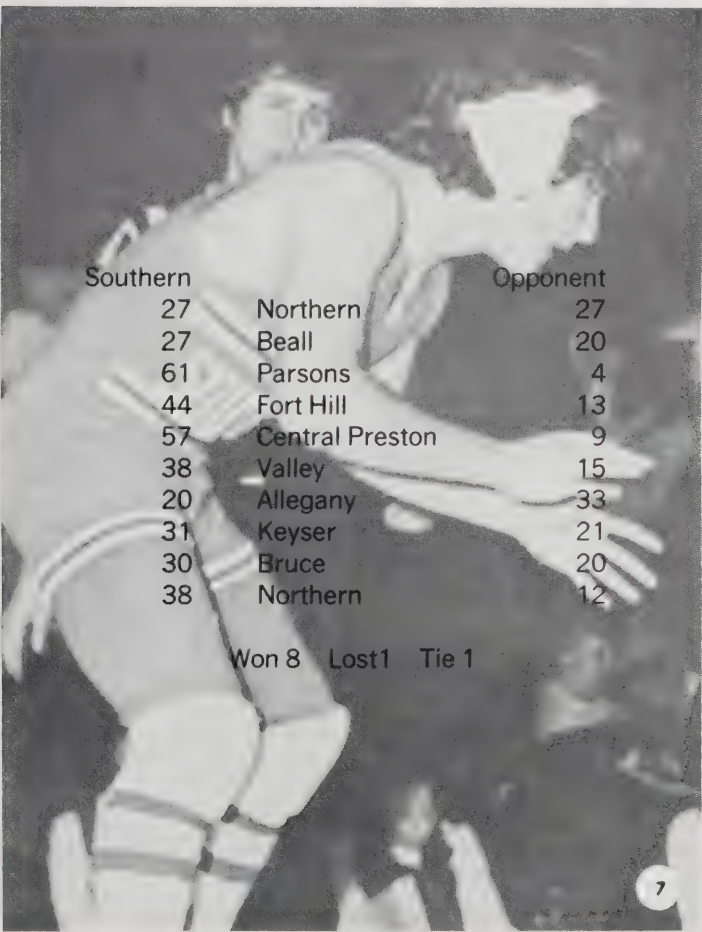

This year's wrestling team finished with the best record in almost a decade. The team finished with 8 wins, 1 loss, and 1 tie. Not only did the wrestlers finish with a great record, but they also succeeded in winning four trophies.

"We are the Champions" became the team's theme song as the season went on. Every tournament meant another trophy for the wrestlers to look forward to winning.

The most exciting win of the season was the match against Northern. This match was held on school time. The spirit of the crowd filled the gym. The team knew they could win and they did. The final score was 38-12.

Wrestlers Are the Champions

Coach Mike Huddleston's second year of coaching proved to be a success. He had this to say why he thought the season was so great:

There are several reasons why my second year as a wrestling coach was a successful one. It took a year to get the program up to its present level of operation. This year we gained school, parent, and community support, pride in our program, and finally overcame the losing tradition and negative attitudes associated with the wrestling program.

However, all the growth that our program experienced could not have been possible without the athletes. I was very fortunate to have an outstanding group of people in the program. Their extreme hard work, dedication, and desire to win was the real reason for our success. They made me look awfully good.

Team co-captains Bob Wolf and Jim Clark also helped to keep the team in shape for their opponents.

Bob Wolf, Jeff Hinebaugh, and Jim Clark advanced to the Regional Tournament. Unfortunately, Bob and Jeff lost their 1st match, but Jim went on to place 2nd, in the tournament.

Jim Clark ended his wrestling season by going to the state tournament and placing in the top eight. He is the 2nd wrestler from Southern to go to state. He said this about this year's wrestling season. "It was an exciting year that I will never forget! 'We are the Champions' came true for Southern this year. I'm glad I was a part of it."

Next year, with most of the team members returning for another year, the team should be another powerhouse. The wrestlers leaving will always be missed, but never forgotten.

Golfers Add Excitement to Spring

The Southern Rams ended their season by once again retaining their P.V.C. championship. The record of wins-losses for the year was 25-3, and the overall record was 103-4.

A big first for the team this year was Debbie Daniels, the first girl on the team. Debbie started the season a little unsure of herself, but she ended with a 105 average for the year.

The Junior Varsity squad, another first for the year, backed varsity all the way. In their only match against Bruce, they won with a score of 439-450. Darren Ream was low scorer with Jim Clark not far behind.

The team's only seniors, Jeff Orr and Larry Sanders, ended their golfing career at Southern and had averages of 80.3 and 82.6 respectively for the year. They will be a great loss to the team in the future.

The Southern Girls' Varsity Volleyball Team Had an exciting and tense season. Led by Captain Chris Shaffer and Coach Mrs. Helen Rostosky, the players greatly improved their style over last year's performance.

Quite a few of the girls bettered their serving abilities and some of them were able to return spikes by the opposing teams on a regular basis.

One reason for the visible improvement was that five of the teammates were able to go to a volleyball camp in Pittsburgh. These girls — Deb Herndon, Lisa Thayer, Diane Gnegy, Helen Niner, and Patty Harsh — were pleased with the new playing skills and techniques they learned, even though they did have to run a mile to the gym every day.

Another unique experience the team had this year was the addition of a rookie volleyball player from France, Laurence Carrette. Even though Lolo was inexperienced when the season started, she quickly developed her talent for the sport. In fact, Lolo even had the privilege of serving the winning point for the last championship match against Northern.

Although the scoreboard cannot show the determination and effort that were the main ingredients in every match, the team should be congratulated for a well-played season.

1. Helen Niner and Sue Rodeheaver put forth total effort for that point. 2. The Southern Girls' Volleyball team. 3. Debbie Herndon — she's not about to let that ball hit the floor. 4. Laurence Carette receives congratulations from Mike McHenry after one of the team's best matches against Northern. 5. As usual, Patty Harsh has her mouth open, while the rest of the team listens to Mrs. Roskosky's plans.

Girls Basketball Sparks With Spirit

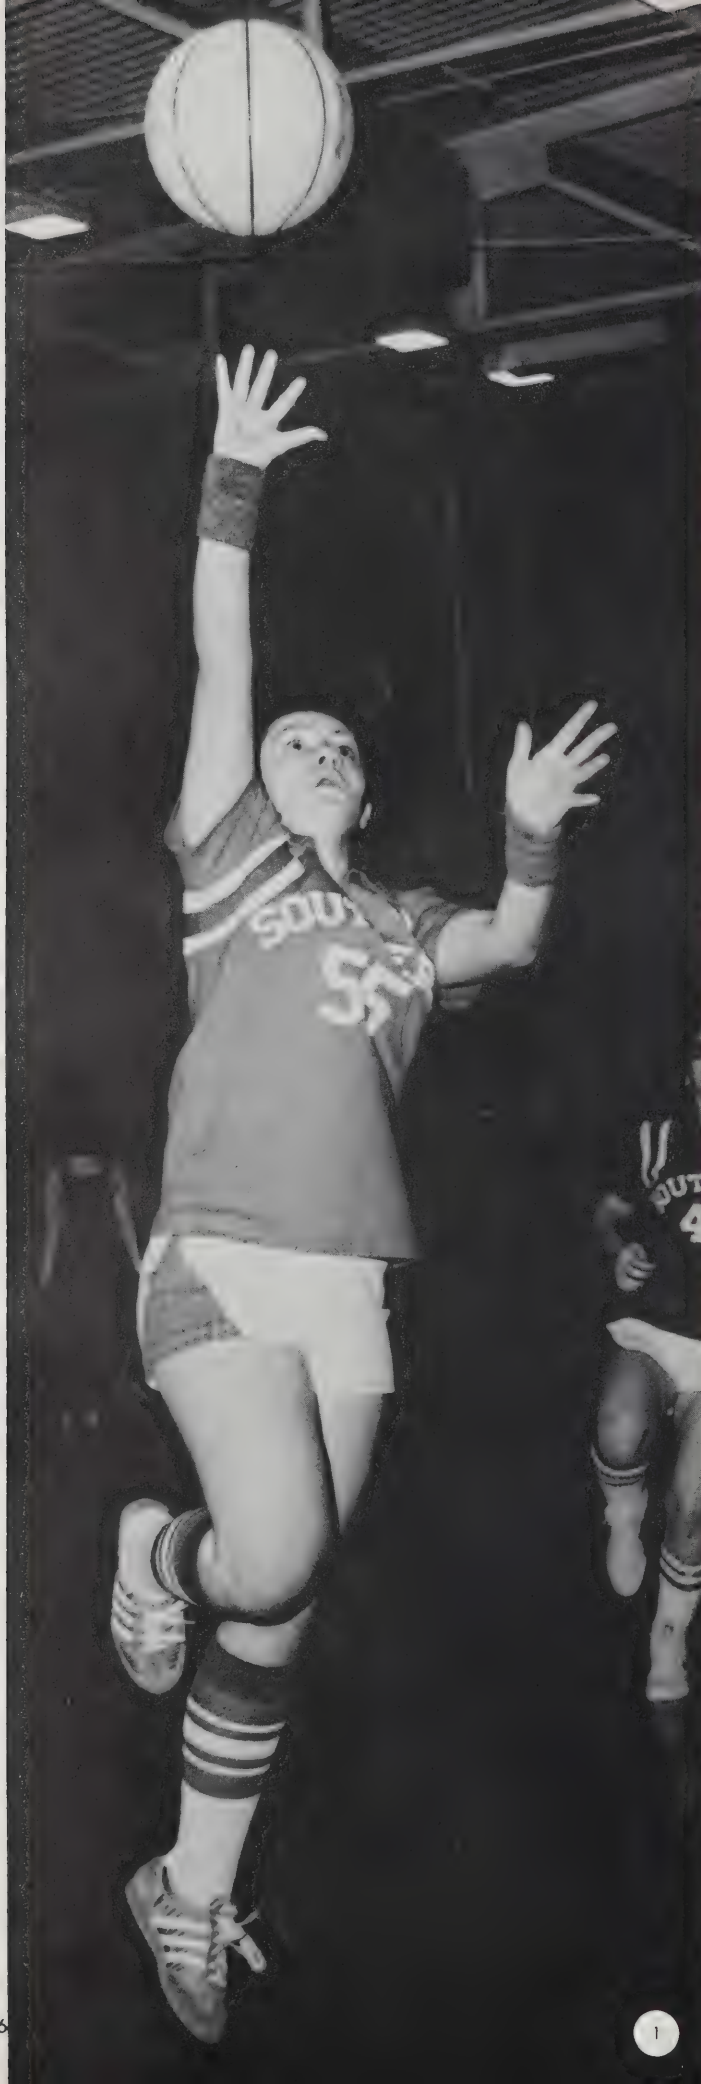

The 1977-1978 Southern High Girls Basketball team has been very active this year, showing great form and excellent sportsmanship. Last summer, some of the team's members traveled to California State College, Pennsylvania, to attend basketball camp. During the week at camp, the girls learned many new maneuvers, giving a few the honor of carrying home trophies to show for the blisters attained during their long workouts.

After camp, the level of enthusiasm for basketball decreased in the girls. But, when it came to fall workouts, the gym floor was freshly coated with new enthusiasm. As the season started, they had acquired more bruises and blisters. This time, however, it had no effect whatsoever on the levels of enthusiasm in the team.

1. The Southern High Girls Basketball Team 1977-1978. 2. Lois Filemyr sneaks the ball past her opponent. 3. Ellen Lantz tries for two. 4. Becky Remley shows good form. 5. The team gets in some practice before the game. 6. Bonnie Earley jumps higher than the opponent. 7. Carol McCracken shows her ability.

Girls' Basketball

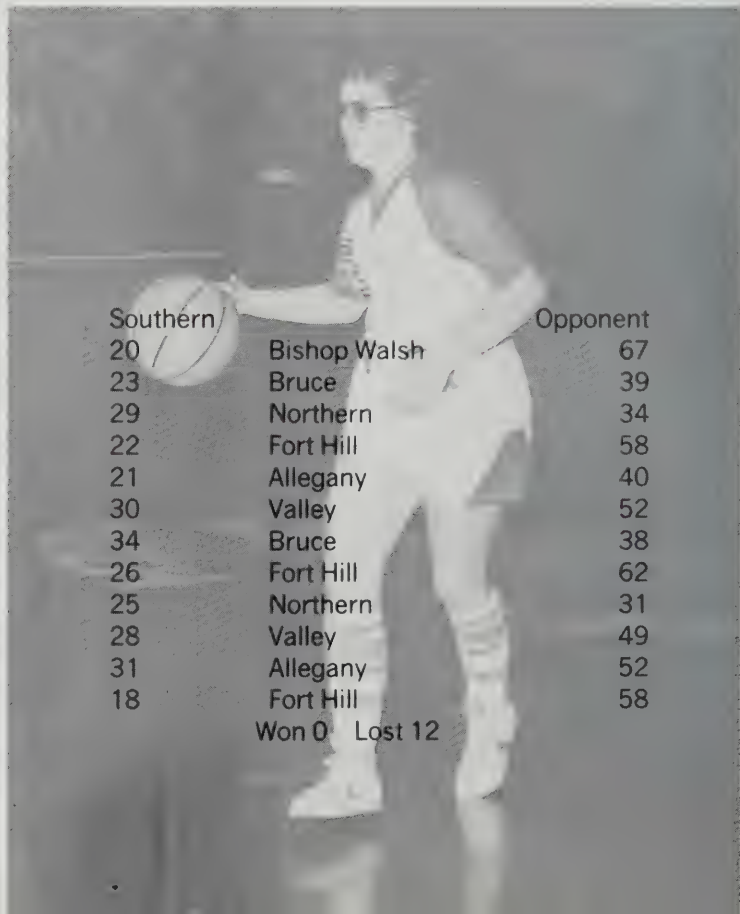

"Sportspersons" is a good word to describe the Southern Girls Basketball Team. They worked together as a team and looked forward to playing even when the going was tough. Their defeats were not losses . . . they gained from them. Said Becky Remley, "I don't feel bad about our season. Of course, I have two years yet to go. But I learned a lot this year — especially in responsibilities."

Other team members felt this way also. Asking Kim Trickett how she felt about their season, she replied, "Although we didn't win any games, we learned a lot about playing as a team."

Jean Hayhurst said, "The entire team pulled together this year, even though it was a young one."

To sum it all up, the 1977-78 Girls Basketball Team had a good year of learning experience that none of them will forget.

1. Becky Remley, a sophomore, is getting good experience for the next two years. 2. The team takes a break and discusses the plays. 1. Jean Hayhurst sings solo while Kim Trickett, Bonnie Earley, and Lois Filemyr sing background. 2. Brenda Snyder, bend and stretch . . . 3. The Rams scramble for the ball. 4. Jean Hayhurst finds an open spot.

We're

1 Varsity Rams and We Love It!

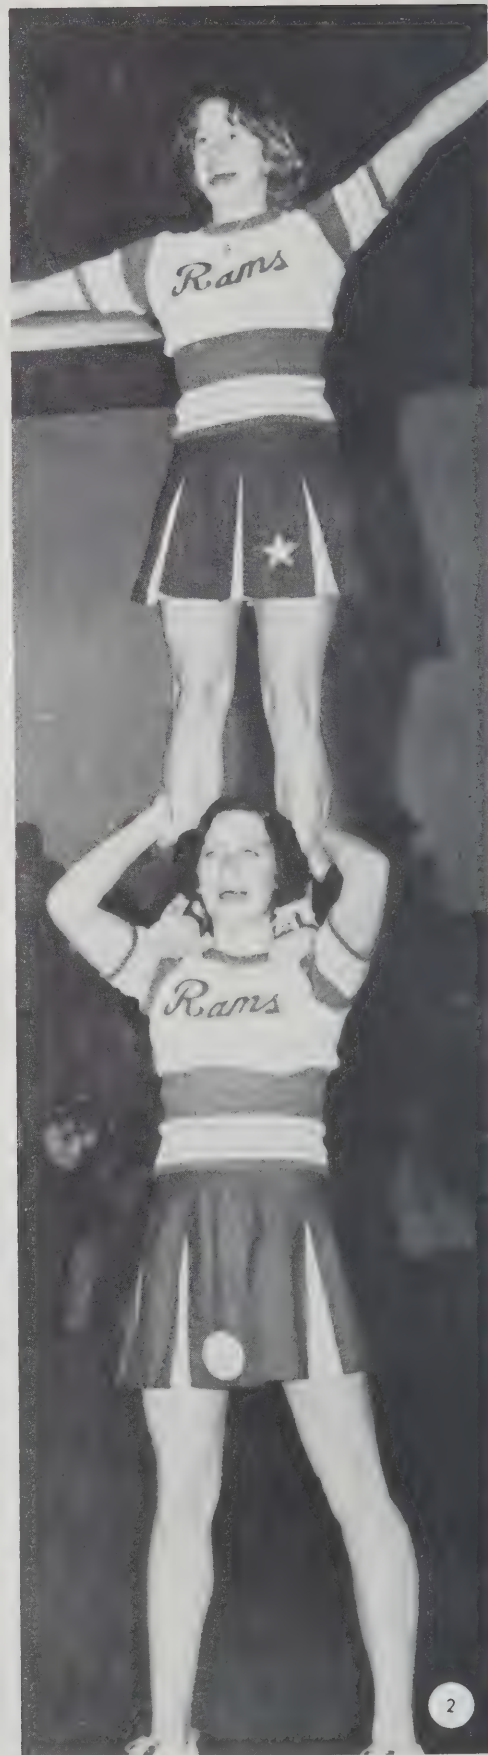

The Varsity Cheerleaders started their 1977-78 season by attending a NCA camp in California, Pa. in July. After learning new cheers, chants, and double stunts, they were rewarded with one excellent ribbon, four superior ribbons, and because of their non-stop spirit, they received the "spirit stick" two days and also received one to take home to the Rams.

During the summer they worked hard selling corn, chances, washing windows at the Drive Inn, and having bake sales. With this money they threw a watermelon party for the football team, purchased new uniforms, and banked the rest for basketball season and the candy, cakes, and "packages" that go along with it. With the help of the mothers, they also purchased liquid thread to decorate pillow cases to be distributed to each player's mother. These cases were then placed on the Ram player's pillow the night previous to their games.

The Student Council, working along with the cheerleaders, put on the first Homecoming parade that has been presented in many years. This was not only a thrill but also a great spirit booster for the Rams.

During basketball season, the spirit never stopped within the band or students. Sockhops, pep assemblies, and spirit days were held for five straight months.

It was a great varsity year and a great year for these six girls who already know and love the feeling of being No. 1 RAMS!

I could not have asked for more fun or a better season.

Champions

The 1977-78 Junior Varsity Cheerleaders consisted of six spirit filled, enthusiastic girls: Kelly Beard, Cathie Hessen, Renee Stephanic, Catie Ravenscroft, Angie Kreyenbuhl, and Nancy Hessen, captain.

The J.V.'s began their season in the spring by selling sponges and practicing several times weekly, in order to attend a National Cheerleading camp at Duquesne University in Pittsburgh, Pa.

Once at camp, these girls, under constant competitions and pressure, captured three superior and one excellent ribbon. They were also presented the "Super Star Squad" award for their unending dedication, and constant perseverance. After returning from camp, the cheerleaders started to earn money for the payment of their badly needed football uniforms. They also learned that the hard work would still continue as they would soon begin one of the best football and basketball season any J.V. cheerleading squad had ever seen.

The girls were happy to cheer for such a great group of guys in such exciting games, and they will forever treasure the memory of being the best — A Southern Ram Cheerleader.

1. Catie, Angie, and Cathy take a break. 2. We're #1! say Catie and Renee. 3. Cathy Hessen rocks steady. 4. It can't be that bad Catie, can it? 5. Kelly Beard chants during a Ram football game. 6. Angie Kreyenbuhl gets caught in the act. 7. Nancy Hessen, Captain, shows enthusiasm. 8. Angie, Cathy, Nancy, and Kelly just standing around.

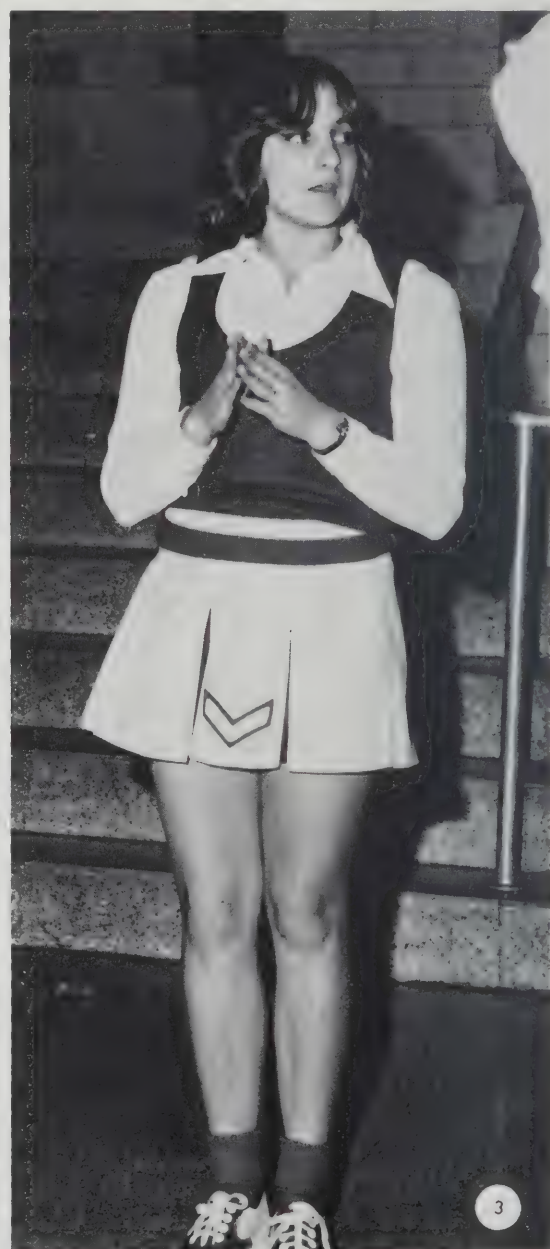

The 1977-1978 Varsity Cheerleaders for wrestling consisted of five young spirited girls. They are: Carrie Johnson, Aimee Hanline, Roberta Johnson, capt., Connie Shannon, and Kathy Thomas.

This year's squad started early in the summer doing many fund raising activities including; bake sales, car washes, and selling Ram bumper stickers.

The long practices paid off because this year's squad led the Varsity Wrestlers to an 8-1-1 record.

The squad's advisors were Debbie Woods and Ed Green. The squad would also like to thank Mrs. Jean Hayhurst for being their advisor at away matches.

Suc-ce-ss!

1. Lori, Aimee, and Roberta seem interested in something other than cheering. 2. It's a squad effort to make a pyramid. 3. Carrie Johnson practices before the Alco match. 4. Wrestling Cheerleaders 1977-78. 5. Roberta Johnson, captain, watches a new cheer. 6. Kathy Thomas — the great! 7. Connie and Carrie warm-up.

Prom 1978 — Queen Mary Strobel Reigns

The McHenry House at the Wisp provided the perfect setting for the 1978 Prom. The evening started with a fine dinner prepared by the Wisp staff; then as the lights dimmed and the band Ecstasy started to play, couples emerged from their candle lit tables to dance to the music.

The theme Dust in the Wind was played as the court enjoyed a well-deserved dance.

All the couples enjoyed dressing in their fanciest clothes to be with their sweethearts for one special memorable evening.

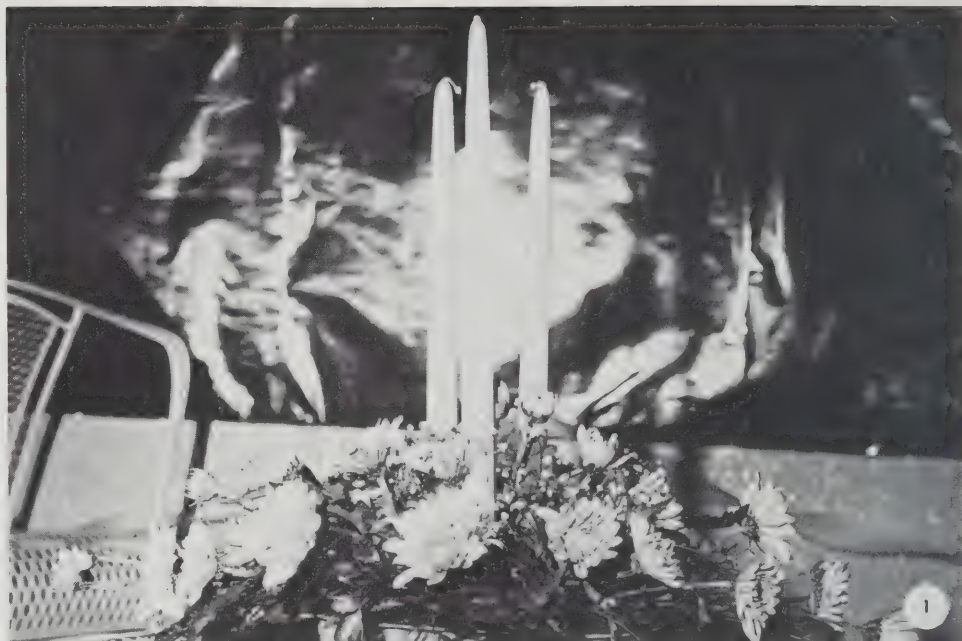

1. Mary Strobel is crowned queen as Joey DiSimone stands proud. 2. Crown bearer Jason Buckley and Flower Girl Christy Browning. 3. Mary and Joey enjoy "their" dance. 4. Members of the court Linda Booth and Mark Proudfoot. 5. Diane Frazee, Jack Riley, Leanna Harvey, and Ken Marks. 6. Marcia Wolfe and Jeff Gosnell. 7. The Band Ectasy plays "Dust in the Wind." 8. Dave Browning seems to be waiting for his date to return from dancing. 9. Carol Corliss decorates the main entrance. 10. Jude Woodhead, Nancy Whitehair, and Cheryl Cosner busily discuss their evening. 11. Chaperones Judy Brandalick, Lenora LaRue, Harold Miller, and Ed Green try to figure out the latest dance steps.

1. Centerpiece 2. Jimbo Shaffer receives "moon-shooter" award. 3. Donna Sheally says the punch is perfect but Debbie Rinker disagrees. 4. Liz Fazenbaker receives free dance lessons — like she really needs them. 5. Ginger Bailey, "the lifesaver," is proud to get a special award. 6. Terri Riggs looks a bit sceptical. 7. Diane Hinebaugh sings to her date Norman Hanline. 8. Alicia Riggleman and Doug Fitzwater dance the night away. 9. Sharon Skipper — Did you step on something? 10. Richie Bishoff and Sue Riley on spotlight!

"Goofy" Awards Given by Junior Class Officers

During one of the band's breaks, many awards were given to deserving seniors.

These awards reflected upon the whole year. Greg Shockey, Jim Simms, and Steve Liller received pumpkin seeds so they could grow their own pumpkins, instead of stealing them, to splatter on the front steps of the school. Bill Herring got a ladder so he could be as tall as anyone else in the class.

Perry Clark was given a fake $100 bill so his date would not have to pay her own way. Lolo Carette got a French-English dictionary so when she returns to France, she will not have any problems adapting.

These special awards were presented by Angie Lewis president, and Gale Bosley treasurer, of the Junior Class.

All Juniors played an important part in the prom. Many hours were spent to make this dinner-dance successful.

The class of 1978 was kept busy raising and collecting money. Two raffles for fifty gallons of gas were held during the year. The senior class play, "Mousetrap," was directed by Mr. Robert Trant-ham. Day performances were given at Southern, while the night showing took place at Garrett Community College. A lot of work went into the play, but it all paid off.

Seniors were also given the chance to relax and make plans for the future at the Senior Career Brunch. After the brunch, representatives from several types of colleges and occupational careers shared their knowledge with the seniors.

The 1978 graduating class broke the "tradition" of going to Kennywood for the class trip. This year's trip choice was King's Dominion. The seniors went on June 2, which was designated Grad. Nite. Pablo Cruise was the rock group featured.

Class officers were: Diane Gnegy, President; Helen Niner, Vice President; Sherri Umbel, Secretary; and Teresa Casteel, Treasurer. Mr. Jim Zimmerman was the senior class advisor. The class colors were blue and white, and the carnation was the flower. The class motto, "Work as if to live forever, live as if to die tomorrow," was written by Deb Savage.

Good bye . . .
The seniors are leaving to be on their own.
Will they ever be back,
Just for a glance?
A Big responsibility ahead
Careers, families, a life to live . . .
. . . in the future.
Becoming what they want to be,
Taking time to be . . .
. . . a special someone.
Wishing for the fun
They had long ago, or
Hoping for as much fun ahead.
Now . . .
Looking back at all the childhood memories.
Laughing and crying at all times.
But, it's all over.
They'll live a different life from now . . . till death.
Knowing their success in life —
as the years go by.
Each senior will do his job.

A Time To Always Remember —

1. Lori Rostosky, a smile of happiness or sorrow? 2. Linda Uphole looks out into the future. 3. Fred Gregg displays great pride remembering his past 12 years at S.H.S. 4. Rocky Lucas shows deep regret leaving Southern. 5. Diane Gnegy gives traditional valedictorian speech.

Sunday, June 4, 1978, marked many of Southern's young peoples' lives as they graduated from high school and stepped into an open world on that sunny afternoon.

At Southern High, Principal Luther Par-rack, Jr., presented honor awards and Clarence Stem, gave the graduating seniors their diplomas.

Helen Niner, senior class president, gave the welcome speech as well as presenting the senior class mantle to the Jr. Class President, Angie Lewis.

Diane Gnegy delivered the valedictorian

address, "Farewell Southern — Hello World."

Patricia Keefe, receiver of the Danforth "I Dare You" award also was named salutatorian of her graduating class. Paul Naylor also received the Danforth "I Dare You Award."

After the ceremony was over mixed emotions filled the air everywhere. Most felt that it was a moment to always remember. A moment to treasure in their most fond memories. But most of all they felt that graduation was a time to always remember . . .

*Work as if to Live Forever
Live as if to Die Tomorrow*

Sr. Class Motto

Farewell Southern Hello World

1. Ginger Baily is bored by graduation practice. 2. Tom Harsh shows a smile of relief after receiving his diplomas. 3. Phyllis Lough looks back on "it" all. 4. Chris Meyers, another happy graduate.

Ode to Junior 1977-1978

Eleven years of memories and tragedies;

*The times
we've broken ground
and held out our hands for friendship will always be treasured.*

*The years
we've spent dreaming
and sharing are so dear to us now,
Only one more year to establish togetherness.*

Soon, we will divide and attempt to repeat the cycle.

*But until then, we will continue to nourish ourselves on friendship
and
to secure ourselves with memories.*

SOPHOMORES

The year was full of excitement, good times, and laughter. Of course, there were problems and hardships, but by keeping our eyes raised toward many important goals, we pulled through.

No longer are we the "babies" — we have matured a lot since our freshman year. Although it just seems like the beginning, our high school days are swiftly running out. Only two more years left . . . then we will be on our own.

Going through high school is sort of like a growing seed. At the center is all the promise of a beautiful thing to come. Freshmen are the kernel in this seed. Their decisions and choices shape their future, and no one can say if they are right or wrong until their efforts blossom.

The class of '81 had a taste of Southern in their seventh grade year, but they were subsequently shipped off to the Middle School. Returning to Southern, they found a wealth of changes, most of which were for the better. More room and freedom of movement were the heart of these improvements. Also, all those teachers and administrators who seemed so big have finally been reduced to their proper dimensions.

High school no longer seems to be the endless torture it once appeared to be. So look up, Freshmen! The future is all yours.

ADMINISTRATION

Mr. Luther D. Parrack, Jr., principal

1977-1978 introduced us to still more of the interesting and challenging ups and downs which seem unique to present day high schools. No two school years seem to ever turn out the same any more.

We began this year with the good intentions of improving our programs of instruction and strengthening our various activities. By mid term we were involved in strikes and shortages of energy and money. Many people cooperated to cut costs by getting along with less light, cooler classrooms, and even cancelling several activities.

We came out of a cold, bleak winter with a backlog of things which needed to be done and the pace seems to accelerate as the end of the term approaches. We would extend our gratitude to all those good students and staff members who once again made something constructive happen amidst all the inconvenience and uncertainty and came through it smiling.

You are an inspiration to us all. Keep up the good cheer.

Name two good reasons for banking at our Mid-Towns Plaza Office

like Bev Schmidt and Sherry Sanders. Both Bev and Sherry (Southern graduates) provide prompt, friendly and personal service to our growing list of customers.

Reason Two: Convenient Hours . . .

open Monday through Friday 8:00 a.m. to 8:00 p.m.; Saturday 9:00 am to 12:00 noon. We're at your service when you need us.

through twelve

1. Live from New York, it's Saturday Night, with host Miss "Jumping Jane" Avery.
2. Shari Evans and Diana Frazee test out the water fountains! But for what?
3. Craig Trautwein stops to relax.
4. Mike McHenry drops in to say "hi" to Jerry Haniline.
5. Jimbo Shaffer takes a smoke between classes.
6. Mr. Buckley and Nancy Hesen don't seem to be too happy that it's seventh period.
7. John Jones (Mr. Huggable): have teddy bear, will travel.

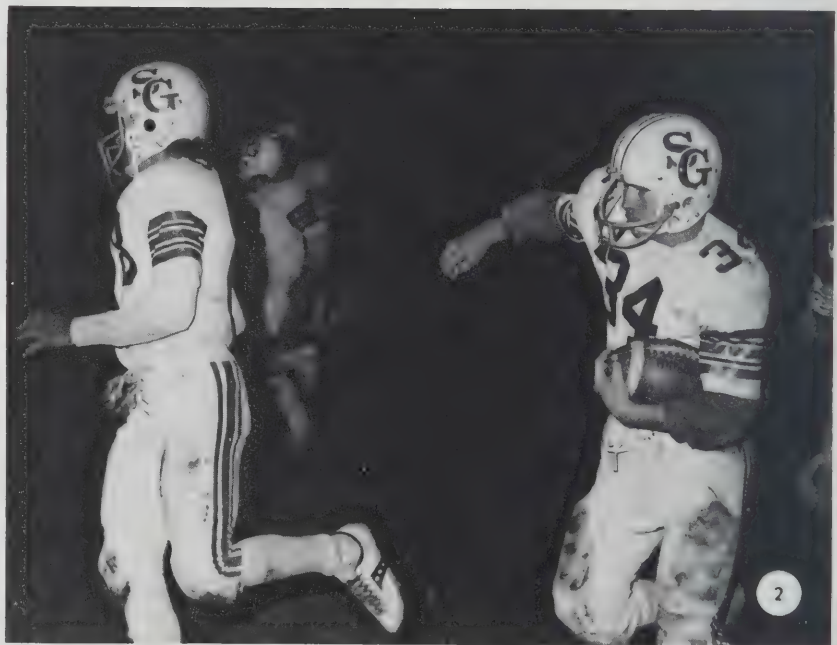

Southern Offers Free Expression!!

1. Brant Turney and Jim Whitacre "get down" on their guitars. 2. Terry Lucas rushes for some yardage against Valley. 3. Diane Parsons must have just had a hair raising experience. 4. Susie Shaffer and Mr. Buckley hard at work for the yearbook. 5. Cathy Graham and Carol Corliss "slip sliding away." 6. The long arm of the law reaches out to stop Warren Steger. 7. Shelly Lasek and Pat Gregg enjoy a close encounter of the best kind.

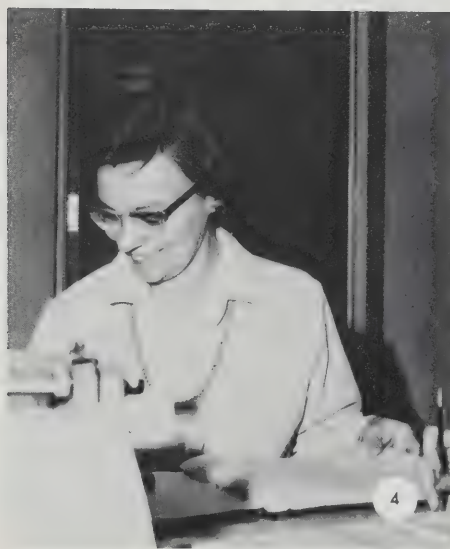

Close Encounters of the S.H.S. Kind

Talents of Southern Shines

1. Carrie Johnson sleep walking. 2. Denise Grimm sings a pretty melody for Kelly Beard. 3. Michele Turney gives a goober. 4. Mrs. Shaffer must know a good secret. 5. "OH say can you see!" 6. Graffiti hits the backstage of Southern.
